Section A

Question 1: Read the following passage and answer the questions given below it:

Socrates lived in Athens about four hundred years before Jesus Christ was born. As a boy he was ugly, undersized and had a flat nose and bulging eyes. His father was a poor stone-cutter, so he was always rather shabbily dressed. Like other boys of his age he went to school, where the most important lessons were music and gymnastics. He also learned some science and mathematics and a little about the stars, but not nearly so much history and geography as children learn today. This strange little creature with the short neck and plain face was a thoughtful child. He watched his companions all the time and allowed very few things to escape his notice.

Socrates did not have a big house or fine furniture. He did not seem to want either wealth or beautiful possessions. As he grew older, he began to think very little of bodily comfort and pleasure. He gave his mind to all that was noble, honourable and just.

Subject: Request to make regular arrangements for evening games.

By the way of introduction my name is abcd, I am a student of your prestigious institution currently pursuing bachelors in humanities with mathematics. I am a hosteller residing in senior hostel new building for Arts of the institution.

I am writing this letter requesting you to make suitable arrangements for evening game within the premises of college. Majority of students are interested in sports like cricket , badminton , basket ball and lawn tennis. We do have grounds for the same but they are usually closed after college hours making it impossible for students to engage in outdoor sports after college within the campus premises. Moreover there is lack of proper equipments and training facilities as a result students are compelled to travel a distance of 15kms to reach sports centre Alkanda for outdoor games.

I would like to request you to please consider my request and make suitable arrangements for the evening games. I look forward for a positive response.

Thanking you for the same.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Roohi

Hope this letter finds you in good health and being. I hope you are enjoying your dance academy. Did you make any new friends there? Let me know when your next stage performance is, apologies for missing the last one due to my final examination.

I visited the city of Jaipur a week ago and got an opportunity to visit Nargarh Fort. It was truly a worthwhile experience, it seems like you are walking in the past going through lives lived by its residents before it became a tourist spot. The most fascinating thing about the fort was that it was divide into two parts i.e. summer house and winter house. I was in awe when tourist guide was explaining the architecture of the palace. Can you imagine king had secret entrances to all his seven queens' room? Moreover they have introduced an exclusive wax museum too and it was so life like and impressive. I suggest you should also go and visit it , I am pretty sure you will love it.

I am looking forward to hearing from you. Give my wishes and regards to uncle and aunt and lots of love to your little sister, I hope her studies are going well. Do visit us soon it's been long

Yours lovingly
